

Commemorating Anzac Day 2023

Wed 29 March 2023

On 25 April this year we mark 108 years since the World War I Gallipoli landings that gave rise to Anzac Day.

On that day in 1915, the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps commenced an 8-month-long campaign that eventually ended in stalemate.

At the end of that year the Anzac forces were evacuated, and news of their casualties and hardships had a profound impact on Australians at home.

April 25th soon became the day on which Australians remember the sacrifice of those who had died in the war.

Memories closer to home

Anzac Day now recognises the sacrifices of all Australian servicemen and women killed in military operations.

War memorials commemorating the memory of those sacrifices can be found in locations across Boroondara, including:

- Beckett Park Soldiers Memorial

- Hawthorn War Memorial in St James Park
- Kew War Memorial at Kew Junction
- Surrey Gardens Cross
- Surrey Gardens Shrine

Anzac Day events are a special way to remember and commemorate the sacrifice of Australian servicemen and women. Below are 4 local events in which you can participate this year.
